MAY 1, 2014

The Illinois College of Emergency Physicians' Spring Symposium is the premier annual event for members, non-member physicians, EM residents, and medical students.

Highlights of the 2014 Spring Symposium:

- Michael Gerardi, MD, FAAP, FACEP, President-Elect of the American College of Emergency Physicians, will analyze the impact of the Affordable Care Act on the practice of emergency medicine from a national perspective, including a discussion of current legislation and lobbying efforts.
- A panel discussion featuring Illinois medicine experts will examine the current landscape of health care in Illinois in relation to the Affordable Care Act. Panelists include Derek Robinson, MD, MBA, FACEP, of the Illinois Hospital Association; Thomas Fisher, MD, of the University of Chicago; William McDade, MD, PhD, president-elect of the Illinois State Medical Society, and Michael Gelder, senior health care policy advisor for Gov. Pat Quinn's Office.
- A Statewide Research Showcase will spotlight the best in Illinois emergency medicine research. Oral presentations will be given during a morning session, and research posters will be on display in the exhibit area.
