LOYOLA UNIVERSITY
HEALTH SYSTEM

Illinois EMSC partnered with the University of Illinois at Chicago, School of Public Health to provide free, pediatric, online education for healthcare providers. University of Illinois at Chicago's School of Public Health has developed an online learning management system which is collaboration between the MidAmerica Center for Public Health Practice (MCPHP) and the Great Lakes Center for Occupational and Environmental Safety and Health. All participants who register and complete the course requirements* will receive continuing education credit as described on the Illinois EMSC Web site.

PublicHealthLearning.com facilitates learning by using a collaborative, comprehensive, and integrated approach. This resource provides access to competency-based courses and other materials to improve your expertise, and to track your professional development.
