big issues in EM that will change your practice:

- Lightning rounds on innovations and hot topics in emergency medicine, including bleeding control for pediatric patients; naloxone; anti-coagulation reversal; EMR; blunt chest trauma; TEG; and advocacy
- "Getting Things Done Working in a Hyper-Distracted World" with Salim R. Rezaie, MD, FACEP, Creator and Founder of REBEL EM, illustrating the concept of "Deep Work" and demonstrating a mental construct that helps to eliminate technologyfocused hyper-distraction
- Lunch-and-learn seminar on the challenges of treating DVT and PE in the hospital and after discharge, presented with support of BMS/Pfizer Global Partnership (no CME for this presentation)
- The Resident Speaker Forum will showcase novice speakers from each residency in a lecture competition, with feedback and a winner selected by an expert panel of judges
- A Statewide Research Showcase will spotlight the best in Illinois emergency medicine research, featuring oral presentations and research posters

Please take time throughout the day to visit our exhibits. It is the support of these companies that makes ICEP's educational programs possible.

If you have suggestions throughout the day for improving our programs, feel free to speak to any Board member, Educational Meetings Committee member, or ICEP staff member. We are always happy to hear your ideas. Thank you again for attending the symposium.

Sincerely,

Yanina A. Purim-Shem-Tov, MD, MS, FACEP, President

Welcome to the Illinois College of Emergency Physicians' 2018 Spring Symposium & Annual Business Meeting!

ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING & AWARD PRESENTATION

Annual Business Meeting May 4, 2017 MINUTES

The 2017 Annual Business Meeting of the Illinois College of Emergency Physicians (ICEP) was held on May 4, 2017 at Northwestern Memorial Hospital in conjunction with the 2017 ICEP Spring Symposium. President Valerie J. Phillips, MD, FACEP called the meeting to order at 12:30 PM.

I. President's Report

Dr. Phillips thanked all of the individuals who made the meeting possible, including Northwestern Memorial Hospital and the event sponsors.

Dr. Phillips reviewed some of the accomplishments of the past year, including continued excellence in education, including the launch of the eOral technology at ICEP's Oral Board Review Courses; the national leadership under ACEP President Rebecca Parker, MD, FA-CEP of Illinois; and the impact of advocacy for patients and physicians at Advocacy Day and through ongoing lobbying efforts. She discussed the value of ICEP membership, highlighting its efforts in education, advocacy, practice resources, and collaboration. She recognized the Board members, Committee chairs, and ICEP staff for their dedication.

II. Board of Directors Run-Off Election

Dr. Phillips announced that due to a tie during electronic voting for the Board of Directors candidates, a run-off election would be held between Paul Casey, MD, FACEP and D. Mark Courtney, MD, FACEP. Runoff ballots were distributed to active members to determine the winner.

III. Recognition of Outgoing Board Members

Dr. Phillips recognized ICEP's outgoing Board members: Mila Felder, MD, FACEP, John W. Hafner, Jr., MD, MPH, FACEP, and resident member Erik Frost, DO. All were thanked for their service to ICEP.

IV. Presentation of Awards

A. ICEP Staff Recognition

ICEP staff members Sue McDonough and Mary Mc-Nicholas were recognized for 20 years of service to ICEP. Ms. McDonough is the Customer Service Manager. Ms. McNicholas is the Accounting Assistant. Dr/ Phillips presented both with flowers and thanked them for their service.

ANNUAL BUSINESS MEETING

B. ICEP Leadership Fellowship

Racheal Gilmer, MD, Alejandro Palma, MD, and John Purakal, MD, MSc, were recognized as the 2017 recipients of the ICEP Leadership Scholarships. The scholarships are awarded to young members who are emerging leaders of the College to fund their participation at ACEP Leadership and Advocacy Conference and ICEP Advocacy Day.

C. ICEP Downstate Member Service Award

John W. Hafner, Jr., MD, MPH, FACEP. was presented with the ICEP Meritorious Service Award, which is conferred upon a member from outside the metropolitan Chicago area who has made a consistent effort to advance emergency medicine in Illinois despite lengthy travel. Dr. Hafner is the immediate past president of ICEP, whose second term on the Board is concluding in May. As a Board member, he made the drive from Peoria to the ICEP office whenever it was needed, no matter how short or long the meeting would be.

Dr. Hafner continues to stay active, serving as a Councillor and sitting on the Awards/Nominating, Bylaws, Finance, Membership, and Research Committees, as well as the Board Liaison for the ITLS Illinois Advisory Committee. Dr. Hafner is a repeat presenter at the Emergency Medicine Update conference in Peoria, for which he previously served as Course Directors for several years. He also served as faculty of the EM Board Review Intensive course and on the course committee for many years.

Dr. Hafner is the Residency Director and a Clinical Associate Professor of Emergency Medicine at the University of Illinois College of Medicine at Peoria. He is also an attending physician at OSF Saint Francis Medical Center.

D. ICEP Meritorious Service Award

Liza Pilch, MD, MBA, FACEP, was presented with the ICEP Meritorious Service Award to recognize er significant contribution to the advancement of emergency medicine by exemplary service. Dr. Pilch is a dedicated longtime member of the ICEP Education Committee who has helped to advance many new educational initiatives for the College. She has served as Assistant Course Director for the Oral Board Review Courses for years and has been a key player in helping to debut the eOral program at the 2017 courses. At ICEP's programs, Dr. Pilch is frequently seen lending a hand wherever it is needed, from assisting at registration to networking with vendors. She also serves on the EMS Committee.

Dr. Pilch is the Medical Director for the Bureau of Emergency Preparedness at the Chicago Department of Public Health. She is also a student advisor for MedEdits Medical Admissions, LLC.

E. Bill B. Smiley Meritorious Service Award David Griffen, MD, PhD, FACEP, was honored with the Bill B. Smiley Meritorious Service Award, ICEP's highest honor, in recognition of his contributions to the advancement of emergency medicine in Illinois. Dr. Griffen is a Past President who served two terms on the ICEP Board of Directors and continues to remain involved as a Councillor and on a wide variety of committees, including Awards/Nominating, Bylaws, Finance, Membership, and Patient and Physician Advocacy. He has been an active advocate at all of ICEP's Advocacy Days in Springfield and has encouraged all of his staff and residents from Springfield to do the same.

Dr. Griffen is Chair of the Division of Emergency Medicine at the Southern Illinois School of Medicine in Springfield.

V. Announcement of Board Election Results

Dr. Phillips announced the results of the Board of Directors elections, including the run-off election. Five active members and one resident member were elected in 2017. Active members elected were Amit Arwindekar, MD, MBA, FACEP, Paul Casey, MD, FA-CEP, Christopher McDowell, MD, MS, FACEP, Ernest Wang, MD, FACEP (incumbent), and Jack Wu, MD, FACEP. Hashim Q. Zaidi, MD, was elected as the resident member. Dr. Phillips congratulated the incoming Board members.

VI. Passing the Gavel

Dr. Phillips introduced incoming president Yanina A. Purim-Shem-Tov, MD, MS, FACEP, and turned over the gavel symbolizing the ICEP presidency to her.

As Dr. Purim-Shem-Tov assumed the presidency, she thanked Dr. Phillips or her outstanding service to the College over the past year. She presented Dr. Phillips with a plaque commemorating her year as President and a thank you gift on behalf of the Board, membership, and staff.

VII. Adjournment

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 1:00 PM.

Respectfully submitted, Ginny Kennedy Palys
