Greater Lafayette Area

Lafayette and West Lafayette, and the surrounding rural communities are among the fastest growing areas in the Midwest. Located between Indianapolis and Chicago, it is home to Purdue University, and a growing number of manufacturing and high tech firms.

From Big Ten sports to multiple performing arts centers to award winning nature parks and trails, the area has something for everyone. The community's private and public schools are consistently top rated, with West Lafayette Community School Corporation ranked #3 in the nation in 2019.
