Intersectionality and Allyship – Promoting
Practice and Care in Emergency Medicine

Intersectionality and Allyship – Promoting Practice and Care in Emergency Medicine

Microaggression and Medicine: When It's Not You, It's Them

Shikha Jain, MD, FACP (She/Her) will be identifying different types of microaggressions, the impact of microaggressions on the gender gap in health-care and solutions to address microaggressions and address inequity.

Power Dynamics in Emergency Medicine

James G. Adams, MD, FACEP (He/Him) will increase participants' effectiveness in managing power differentials in the workplace, especially focusing on resident interactions with nurses, consultants, and attendings.

Providing Trauma-Informed Compassionate Care for Trans and Non-Binary Patients in the Emergency Department

Ashlea D. Winfield, MD, MSPH (She/Her) will provide a working terminology of the TGNB patient to increase physician comfort with terms. Dr. Winfield will then discuss healthcare disparities specific to the TGNB community. Followed by the approach to an appropriate history and physical (gender neutral body terms, how to discuss gender affirming surgeries) with time for questions and answers.
