SPEAKERS

Little Pipes, Big Problems: Unveiling Ductal Dependent Lesions in Pediatrics, Emily C. Dawson, MD

This lecture is designed for emergency room healthcare professionals seeking to deepen their understanding of the critical nuances involved in caring for young patients with duct-dependent cardiac issues.

Minimizing Healthcare Induced Anxiety and Trauma for Pediatric Patients, Samantha Krawiec, CCLS

This lecture will provide evidence-based strategies for emergency healthcare professionals to use when working with pediatric patients to promote optimal coping, alleviate anxiety, and minimize trauma children may experience in an emergency room visit.

Two Truths and a Lie, Alisa A. McQueen, MD, FACEP

This lecture is designed to help take the emergency healthcare professionals' management of pediatric dermatologic conditions to the next level.

Non-accidental Pediatric Trauma, Kenneth L. Wilson, MD, FACS

This lecture will center on penetrating pediatric trauma and resuscitation adjuncts for injured children.
